Hi Brent,

I wonder if she was able to communicate clearly about who she was meeting with in CA and how that related to the proposed investment in VT? It is certainly up to the applicant whether to try again for her visitor visa and I would be happy to provide a letter of support from Senator Leahy's office if you would like. Of course I have no idea if there were other inconsistencies in her two interviews and whether she would be able to overcome the consulate's credibility concerns. Please understand that a letter of support from Sen. Leahy's office is absolutely no guarantee of success!

Regards,

Susan

Susan,

Thank you for your assistance. The Vietnamese connection I've made lives in California. The potential investor would have flown to CA, met up with the investor agent and then flown on to Jay Peak.

Thank you again for looking into this matter.

I was able to contact Ted by phone on Friday, and later ran into him on Church Street.

Kind regards,

Hello Brent,

I was able to get some further information from our liaison at the Department of State's visa office. He indicated that this particular applicant has applied for a business visitor visa twice recently. There was nothing in the notes, nor is our liaison aware of, any policy prohibitions against granting visitor visas for potential EB-5 investors to visit their potential investments. In this particular case, the interviewing consular officer found the applicant less than credible due to inconsistencies in her statements to him. (By the way, is this investment in VT or CA? She stated that the potential investment she was coming to look at was in California.)

It was good to talk with you last week and please feel free to give me a call if you'd like to discuss this or anything else.

Best regards,

Susan

Matt,

Appreciate an inquiry being made. I'm sure it us because of recent McAuliffe related press. Thank senator Leahy and staff for anything you may be able to do on behalf of the specific investor, as well as consular position in general for what may be many more visa requests.

Thanks,

Brent

I can check in to this. Seems like that is not the consular officer's judgment to make. Adding Susan here as well. This may well be related to the inquiry into Greentech/Gulf Coast.

Hi Matt and Ted,

Please see attached. Yesterday, the potential investor was denied a visa from U.S.

Consulate Ho Chi Min City. Investor was informed that EB-5 was "not an appropriate investment at this time".

This is obviously of concern to the VT EB-5 RC. I developed very strong contacts this past January on behalf of current and future projects. In June, my contacts introduced Bill Stenger, Lawrence Miller and me to Vietnam Consul General located in San Francisco.

The Governor, Lawrence and Bill are scheduled to visit Vietnam in September (during China trip) to speak to interested Vietnamese investors.

Are you able to inquire about circumstances for refusal of this specific investor and general status of EB-5 related business in U.S. Embassy and Consulate, Vietnam?

Regards,

Brent
