Hi Brent. Here is the information I need in order to write a letter in support of a new application for this young man. And I have no idea what the attachment says, so you'll need to get the information translated for me so I know what to write (or include the information in the responses to the questions below).

- Full name, passport number and date of birth;
- A paragraph about the person's current life (career, family relationships, community connections, property or businesses owned);
- What is the purpose of the visit, when is it planned to occur, and for how long?
- Has the person ever applied for a visa before? When? And what was the result?
- If the person has visited the U.S. before, did they make a timely return?
- Has the person ever traveled outside their home country? Where, when and for how long?
- The location of the U.S. consulate where the person will apply for the visa (city, country).
- The date of the visa interview (if already scheduled).

Thanks,
Susan
