Leahy To Announce Effort To Permanently Authorize Popular Foreign Investor Program

*Secretary Lawrence Miller, Jay Peak's Bill Stenger, Sugarbush's Win Smith
To Join Leahy To Discuss Successful Job Creation Program*

Friday, March 18 --

12:15 p.m. – Senator Patrick Leahy will be joined by Vermont Secretary of Commerce and Community Development Lawrence Miller, Jay Peak Resort President Bill Stenger, and Sugarbush President Win Smith, at a news conference Friday to announce his new effort to permanently authorize the popular EB-5 Immigrant Investor Regional Center program. Leahy has led efforts in the U.S. Senate to extend the pilot program since its creation in 1993. Jay Peak and Sugarbush are both part of Vermont's successful EB-5 Pilot Project, which is administered by the state. The Regional Center program has generated more than a billion dollars in capital investment in American communities and created thousands of domestic jobs – hundreds, in Vermont -- since 1993. The Centers attract foreign investors seeking legal permanent residency and a chance to invest in the American economy.
Conference Room 1, Burlington International Airport.

Saturday, March 19

11:00 a.m. – Senator Leahy to attend funeral for Corporal Ian Muller, USMC,
932 U.S. Route 5, Waterford.
